

TESGI Decision Memo - CASE_0002

TESI Advisory Decision Memo

Client: David & Emma Chen

Date: March 15, 2024

Property: 28 Ridgeline Road, Clearwater VIC 3851

Prepared by: TESI Advisory

Service Type: Non-Representational Decision Analysis

1. Client Objective (As Understood)

You are considering purchasing a 10-acre rural property at 28 Ridgeline Road, Clearwater for $620,000. Your in

Your stated priorities are:

- Certainty on buildability before commitment
- Suitable land for dwelling and hobby farm activities
- Long-term family home with stable ownership

Your risk tolerance is moderate-conservative, with emphasis on verified information before proceeding.

2. Information Snapshot

Known Facts

- Property is 10 acres, zoned Rural Living (RLZ)
- Title is clear with no encumbrances or caveats
- Soil test confirms Class M (normal reactive) - suitable for standard footings
- BAL assessment confirms BAL-12.5 (low bushfire risk)
- Survey confirms boundaries match title
- Planning certificate shows no overlays or restrictions
- Finance is pre-approved and unconditional
- 14 days remain in 21-day due diligence period

Uncertainties

- Final construction costs (estimate within budget, but not quoted)
- Ownership structure (personal vs trust - to confirm with accountant)
- Future planning policy changes (inherently unpredictable, low probability)

These uncertainties are bounded and do not affect the core decision.

3. TRUE Assessment Summary

All material facts have been verified through independent professional assessments. No reliance on vendor or a

TRUE Status: PASS

4. NORTH Assessment Summary

The decision makes sense over time. Zoning is stable, infrastructure is available at reasonable cost, and enviro

NORTH Status: PASS

5. ALIGNED Assessment Summary

Client objectives are internally consistent and match property characteristics. Budget assumptions are reasonab

ALIGNED Status: PASS

6. Decision State

- ☒ Proceed
- ☐ Pause
- ☐ Avoid / Walk Away

Conditions and Caveats:

Proceeding is supported by the analysis, subject to:

1. Confirm ownership structure with accountant before settlement
2. Obtain building quote to validate construction budget assumption
3. Standard settlement conditions (final inspection, vendor compliance)

7. Rationale Summary